

Employment

Cambium Learning Group 2020–current

Graphic Designer

- Cambium acquired American Institutes for Research in January 2020. Job title and responsibilities are the same as stated below.

American Institutes for Research 2003–2019

Graphic Designer

- Creating EPS and SVG graphics for online and paper state assessment tests.
- Working with content development personnel to develop graphics that align with specific state standards and item database specifications.
- Reviewing and providing support, direction, and feedback to outside contractors to maintain state-specific graphic standards.
- Creating bi-lingual graphics and solving online rendering issues that arise.
- Collaborating with Content item development and IT teams troubleshooting graphic format conflict issues with proprietary item database.
- Working with web graphic developers to optimize graphics and streamline graphic production processes for the assessment production team.
- Training and mentoring new team members. Also, helping them to understand and navigate the work flow and company processes.
- Assisting in the training and personal support of outside contractors. Providing one to one guidance and direction when needed.
- Using the following software: Adobe Illustrator, Photoshop, Excel, and Word

Altrans 2005–2018

Contractor

- Creating transit/commuting surveys, compiling data, designing transit maps for informational pamphlets for Oakland and East Bay Kaiser employees.
- Using the following software: ArcGIS, Adobe Illustrator, Excel, and Word software

Hewlett Packard 2000–2002

Web Designer

- Designing and maintaining over 13 intranet websites for a business division of Hewlett Packard adhering to global IT company standards.
- Collaborating with managers of each division to create strategies and design solutions to meet business and communication goals.
- Using the following software: Frontpage, Dreamweaver, Photoshop, Flash, Director, and Illustrator

Education

Bachelor of Art in Communication Design with an option in Graphic Design
California State University, Chico, Spring 2020

Certificate in Geographic Information Systems
American River College, Sacramento, Fall 2006

Certificate in Graphic Design with an emphasis in Multimedia
California State University, Chico, Spring 2000

Interests

Reading, home improvement, kayaking, cooking, and hanging out with family.

References available upon request.

contact info

chris cavalli

chriscavalli@icloud.com

530.218.1537

chriscavalli.com